

DONALDS

SANTUC LOCALS

Donalds, Oct. 30.—The "Jolly Matrons" are giving a Halloween party in the school auditorium tonight, and it gives promise of being a "spooky affair." The decorations of yellow and black paper festoons, jack-o-lanterns, witches and black cats in abundance. The different booths where ice cream, candy and other good things are to be sold are unique and very attractive. There will be a cake walk and games for old and young. A big time is expected. The proceeds of the night are to be used for civic improvements.

Mrs. Pierce Tribble visited relatives in Charlotte last week, and she and Mr. Tribble spent Sunday in Anderson with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pettigrew.

Mr. Baskin Winn was a business visitor in Abbeville on Friday.

Rev. J. M. Dallas was an Abbeville visitor on Friday afternoon.

The monthly meeting of the Civic League was held at the home of Mrs. Clara Donald on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Frank McKenney and Mrs. Pierce Tribble as joint hostesses. Considerable business was transacted, and plans were made for the raising of funds. A bazaar is to be held in the near future. A very interesting program was given. During the social hour a delicious salad course was served by Misses Juanita and Doris Tribble and little Master William McKinner. The living room was prettily decorated with cut flowers and pot plants.

In addition to the regular membership several invited guests were present. All enjoyed the hospitality of the hostesses.

Mr. Calvia Martin visited in Abbeville on Friday.

Rev. J. M. Dallas filled his regular appointment at Ware Shoals on Sunday morning and night. He and Mrs. Dallas were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cobb and family at their hospitable home.

Mr. John Anderson Drake spent Friday afternoon in Abbeville on business.

A number of our people who have been sick are all improving.

Mr. James Pruitt of Belton is sick at the home of his parents. We wish him a speedy recovery.

A barn near Donalds was burned Thursday night with the contents. It belonged to Mr. L. J. Davis and will be a considerable loss.

Miss Virginia Thompson is spending the week-end at her home in Florence.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton May and child son of Honea Path are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew May.

Miss Lillie Martin addressed the Woman's Missionary society of the Abbeville Methodist church on Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sadler attended the Daniel re-union at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Daniel near Ware Shoals last Sunday.

Mr. A. J. Morrison and little son, Richard of Columbia, came up for a week-end visit to the former's home people and Richard remained over for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kay had as their guests Sunday, Mr. Wm. H. Sharp, Messrs Bascom and Clarence Kay, Misses Annie and Louise Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carwile and son Leander, and Mr. John Walker of Level Land.

Mrs. Mack Wright and Miss Annie Kay spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Charlie Botts.

Frances Kay spent last Friday night with his little cousin, Thomas Milford.

We are sorry to note that Mrs. Bramlette is not improving much at this writing. Hope she will soon be in her usual health again.

Mrs. Ernie Haddon is spending this week with Mrs. Tom Hunter who has broken bone fever.

NEWSPAPER SPACE IS BEST BUSINESS GETTER

Chicago Ad. Superintendent Says Newspaper Space Should Be Used Continuously.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 26.—"No form of merchandise advertising is equal to, or a substitute for newspaper advertising, it not only helps sell the goods but incidentally helps build good-will." was the advice given today to 1,000 members of the American Gas Association by John F. Weedon, superintendent of advertising of the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company of Chicago.

"Newspaper space should be used continuously throughout the year," Mr. Weedon said. "Spasmodic advertising activities produce only spasmodic results. Keeping everlastingly at it emphasizes a faith in your institution, your service and your goods that is eventually transferred to the public through the insistence and persistence of your announcements."

According to Mr. Weedon the sum total of successful copy writing is keep all advertisements simple.

"An advertising man need not be brilliant," he said. "All he needs is good hard sense, which has been defined as being chuck full of stable information. Seemingly clever head lines and witty phases do not sell goods. Advertisements are news items. The public wants to know what—where—how much."

In speaking of good-will and policy advertising, he said the expense for these two forms should not be imposed on merchandise advertising.

"The account should be divided to show exactly the expenditure for each," he advised. "This will also help to fix a proper conception of the advertising expenditure as not an expense but an investment that helps earn a net."

JOE MUNDY, THE HEALER

Cures Many Maladies—Remarkable Feats Performed

Abbeville has a man who claims to be possessed of a strange healing power. He is Joe Munday, and he lives near Buzzard Roost church on the Abbeville-Hodges road. He is a middle-aged square-set fellow of ordinary education and attainment but believes absolutely in himself and in his power to heal.

He says this power has been in his family for generations and is handed down from mother to son and from father to daughter. That a man can teach a woman to heal but not another man, and a woman can teach a man but not a woman. The power is passed down through the sexes in this cross-wise way.

The Mundas live at the old home stead. One brother, Rink Mundy has lived there for 55 years and has never been away longer than two weeks during this time.

Joe Mundy believes firmly that he has the power to heal and that this power is God given. He says he can cure any kind of skin affection or disease like eczema or pellagra, or any hemorrhage or bleeding. He cites various cases and marvelous cures he has made. He makes no charge for the treatment and claims that his gift would be taken from him if he accepted pay. His power is a secret and he will not reveal it. All that is necessary for you to do to be healed, he says, is to tell him your name and he will look into your eyes and presto you are well. There are magic words he uses in his mind, but that belongs to the secret.

Joe Mundays family believe him possessed of this strange power. Recently one of the children while playing near the house cut a toe nearly off and a playmate ran for the mother, who kept on with her work saying that Joe was there and that he would heal it. They claim he did.

He also claims to be able to heal animals. A mule while plowing in a field stepped on a broken bottle and cut a gash in his foot causing great loss of blood. He approached the mule looking into his eyes, and the bleeding stopped instantly.
